STATE SENATOR.

We are authorized to announce
DR. A. D. JAMES,
Of Muhlenberg county, as a candidate for State Senator in the 8th Senatorial District, subject to the action of the Republican party.

REPRESENTATIVE.

ESQ. W. I. ROWE,
Of Centertown, as a candidate to represent Ohio county in the Lower House of the next General Assembly, subject to the action of the Republican party.
C. M. BARNETT
A candidate to represent Ohio county in the next House of Representatives,
party.

GROVER'S latest fad is to fish on Sunday.

THE whisky vote is to be taken next Monday.

SENATOR Brice has decided to be a candidate for re-election to the U. S.
Senate from Ohio.

THE College flies out at the window as the saloon comes in at the door. Mark it!

ARE the whims of Hartford superior to the rights of the entire county?
Those who favor open saloons say as much by their votes.

THE citizens of Hartford who favor open saloons arrogate to themselves the right and power to override and nullify the will of the entire county.

PRECINCT Conventions have been called for Saturday, July 20th, to choose delegates to meet in Convention at Hartford on Monday, July 22nd, to nominate a Republican candidate for the Legislature. See the call elsewhere.

A suspicious Vanceburg wife returned home from a visit very unexpectedly and found a pretty young girl quartered in her own wanted place. The irate wife proceeded to weed out the pain with a hoe. The result was a chopped up girl and a divorce suit.

THE great stir made by the leading Democrats for Sound Money is an achievement that the Republicans are
and have been right on the financial question and that the Democrats have been wrong. If the Democratic Convention decides to adopt Free Silver it will be a declaration to the world that the party means to

THE Republicans of Kentucky may congratulate themselves upon their glorious prospects for success. The Convention held last week, in numbers, enthusiasm and intelligent action is without a parallel in the history of Kentucky politics. The party stands upon a solid platform, declaring for a Protective Tariff and Sound Money. The Democrats are hopelessly divided and are knifing each other to the hilt. The ticket nominated might well be the pride of any party or of any State in the Union. Earnest, united effort and the victory is ours.

THE Louisville Evening Post, which
of late has been preaching a great deal of Republican doctrine on the financial question says in a recent issue:

"An oft repeated argument of the friends of silver is their claim that little or no gold is in circulation. They fail to remember to think of the fact that the agitation of the currency question during the past two years has been the primary cause of hoarding of the more precious metal. They could easily and truthfully assert the same cause for the big slump in all the choice American interest bearing securities. Fears that were naturally raised by a manifestly unwise etten pt to bring about a change in the financial system of the United States have made gold coins scarce, and with free coinage a law they would soon be 'scarce as hen's teeth.'"

HENRY WATTERSON in Monday's issue of the Courier-Journal sounds a double headed three column note of alarm to the Democracy of Kentucky, in which he starts out by saying:

"The Republicans have come and gone, and no thoughtful Democrat can say that, according to the standard usually applied in such cases, their proceedings were not a success.
"In numbers, in respectability, in enthusiasm, in unity of purpose, the convention of last week challenges comparison with any similar body of Kentuckians. The ticket nominated is a clean ticket."

And yet a certain country weekly like an ill tempered old woman, proceeds to denounce the Courier-Journal for speaking the truth and proceeds to slander William O. Bradley, who is the peer of any Kentuckian, merely because the childish and chattering weekly was once upon a time beaten at its own mean, sneaking game. It is not amiss to say in this connection that the same old womanish weekly last year slandered John W. Lewis in the same ungenerous manner. As was Lewis' victory in the Old Fourth so will be Bradley's in the State. Turn on your mud batteries.

PISO'S CURE FOR Cough, Croup, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Asthma, Influenza, etc.
Sold by Druggists.

THE people of the town little appreciate the fact that they are voting school and business away when they bid the open saloon come in.

SENATOR Blackburn is following Senator Lindsay over the State, correcting or attempting to correct the Senators definition of Democracy.

STRANGE to say, but true, nevertheless, that on the very day Hartford votes on the saloon question Beaver Dam begins a protracted meeting.

JOSH POWERS is leading the Sound Money hosts of Davies county Democracy and Josh Griffith, the Sil-
Joshes.

THE most serious question that could possibly be presented to the people of Hartford is that on which they will be called to pass next Monday. A vote for saloons is a thrust at the very life and welfare of the town.

PRESIDENT Cleveland's mania for fishing, which has led him away from the observation of Decoration Day, etc., has at last become so powerful that he has gone to fishing on the Sabbath Day. The newspapers of Monday contained accounts of his last Sunday's fishing in Virginia.

It is a very unequal contest when 400,000 Sunday School teachers are busy depicting the awful wickedness
America, and the Chief Magistrate himself dons his linen, his broad brimmed hat and his hooks and lines and goes fishing on Sunday. Grover is the hero of but few grown up folks, but by that little Sunday fishing spree he has endeared himself forever to the heart of the average small boy.

THE name of Bob Lincoln has been suggested as a probable dark horse in the Republican National Convention of 1896. But this is no doubt more of a possibility than a probability. Bob's time will come when with Robert T. Lincoln for President and William O. Bradley for Vice-President, the country will put a stop to the idea that it is still divided by Mason and Dixons' Line, when nominating candidates for President and Vice President.

ALEXANDER HAMILTON, the greatest financier and statesman this country ever produced, in speaking of the money question used these memorable words:

"There is scarcely any point in the economy of National affairs of greater moment than the uniform preservation of the intrinsic value of the money unit. On this the security and steady value of property essentially depends."

What was true in the infancy of

THE Hon. Henry R. Gibson, of Tennessee, says in a recent issue of
Protective Tariff:

"A man is a traitor, who in time of war, favors the admission of foreign forces that will cripple our fighting men. What, then, shall we call the man, who in time of peace, favor the admission of foreign goods on such terms as will cripple our workingmen? A Protective Tariff in time of peace is to our laboring men what forts and guns, in time of war, are to our fighting men. A Protective Tariff and a Republican Administration will bring prosperity to our people and prosperity will solve the financial problem. Our National welfare is wrapped up in a Protective Tariff as the oak is wrapped up in the acorn."

In his Bowling speech Secretary Carlisle made these five points, which so far the Silverites have failed to refute:

First—There is not a free coinage country in the world to-day that is not on a silver basis.

Second—There is not a gold standard country in the world to-day that does not use silver as money along with gold.

Third—There is not a silver stand-
uses any gold as money along with silver.

Fourth—There is not a silver stand-
has more than one-third as much money in circulation per capita as the United States have.

Fifth—There is not a silver standard country in the world to-day where the laboring man receives fair pay for his day's work.

THE Free Silver plank in the State Democratic platform of 1891 is as follows:

"Recognizing the fact that the United States is the greatest silver producing country in the world, and that both gold and silver were equally the money of the constitution from the beginning of the Republic until
the hostile and fraudulent legislation
of the Republican party against free silver, which unduly contracted the
and feeling that the great interest of the people demand more money for use in the channels of trade and commerce, we tender our gratitude to the Democrats in the last Congress for their almost unanimous vote in both houses in favor of the free coinage of silver, and demand its restoration to the position of equality before the law given it by our forefathers."

What will they say on the 25th?
Will the party stick to this doctrine and insure defeat or turn a somersalt and admit the corrections of Republican principles? Surely there are the days when it tries men's souls to be a Democrat.

THE Democratic party is usually
from two to ten years behind the
National issues. While Grant was playing havoc with Pemberton at Vicksburg the National Democracy was declaring the War a failure.

While the Democratic party was clamoring for the repudiation of the public debt and crying that it could never be paid, the Republican party was maintaining the credit of the Nation and providing for the payment of every dollar of the country's indebtedness. While the Democratic party was denouncing the Resumption of Specie payments and declaring in the most solemn manner that the effort would bankrupt and ruin the Government, the
the great measure and achieving one of the greatest financial victories of all time. While the Democratic Conventions of two-thirds of the States of the Union were declar-
Coinage of Silver, the Republican party was declaring for sound money.
While the Democratic party and press were ridiculing the idea of manufacturing tin in this country, McKinley and the Republican party were enacting laws which have built up the American tin industry until there are no less than 27 establishments, employing not less than 15,000 hands, and turning out thousands of dollars worth of finished product every year.
To-day no Democrat will contend the War was a failure, nor that the Government should have repudiated its obligations, or that the Resumption of Specie payment was wrong. The intelligence of the Democratic party sees the light on the money question and Democratic speakers and writers are compelled to admit that the American Tin Plate industry is an established and incontrovertible fact.
The Democracy has found itself admirably adapted to playing "second fiddle," but it has ceased to play a leading part in American politics.

Republican Convention.

A delegate county convention is called to meet in Hartford, Ky.,
at the court house, Monday, July 22, 1895 at 10 o'clock to nominate a Republican candidate for Representative from Ohio county, in the next session of the General Assembly of the commonwealth of Ky. It is ordered that on Saturday, July 20, 1895 conventions be held in each voting precinct in Ohio county to select delegates to the convention called for July 22.
Each precinct shall have, in the county convention one vote for each twenty-five votes, cast in such precinct for John W. Lewis at the November, 1894 election, and one for each fraction of such vote over twelve.
Said precinct conventions are called to meet at two o'clock p. m.
The East and West Hartford precincts shall be held together. The two Fordville precincts shall hold convention as one precinct. The voters in the Otaton precinct will vote in precinct conventions held in precincts in which they voted at the Nov.
1894 election.
The following is the vote each precinct will have in the county convention.

A Prayer.

At the opening of the State Convention in Louisville last Thursday morning, Rabbi Moses, of the Jewish Temple offered prayer, from which we take the following:

"The eyes of the whole nation are in this hour turned with anxious expectation upon this assembly. For a fatal delusion has taken possession of numbers of the American people. National dishonesty is by many held to be national wisdom, debasement of the coin of the land is believed will insure our country's prosperity. Dense ignorance, reckless selfishness, overreaching greed, have perverted the judgment of hundreds of thousands in the land. False prophets have arisen, corrupters of the people's
breach of faith with individuals and nations they commend as highest public virtue. They laugh to scorn the world's experience, the wisdom of the wise is folly in their eyes.
"Oh, Lord, dire disaster is threatening the American people. National bankruptcy and individual ruin, the misery and degradation of those who work for hire are lying in ambush. We beseech Thee, protect the American people from the errors and wiles of those who would lure it from the path of honesty and safety.
speak out in no uncertain tones for
in clarion notes that there shall be no false weights and false measures, no fraud and no breach of faith in the land of Washington and Lincoln.
May they give assurance to the whole country that a battle will be fought in this State, not for the petty interests of party nor for the gains of of-
and prosperity."

Mrs. E. J. Hudson moved Wednesday into the Nall property on Mulberry Street.

THE CABINET.

A Well Written Letter Regarding Na- tional Poli- tics.

Feels Confident the State Ticket Will Win.

Attended the State Convention and met Many Friends from this end of the

LEBANON KY., June 10, 1895.

Only the man who could find, and use, in his messages to Congress such expressions as "innocuous desue-tude," "communism of pelt" and
"jealous rivalry of selfish distrust" could have been able to find the man Olney to be Attorney General. It has never been clear how Cleveland found Olney, only in the light of his ability to find the expression just quoted from each of three several messages to Congress. After finding him, however, it becomes a greater mystery why he should have used him, analogy in the direction just urged ceasing entirely. I never heard of him until he was appointed to the Cabinet. Nothing strange about that however as there are some eminent men in this country, no doubt, of whom I have not heard, but as far as I have been able to learn not a man in Kentucky, had ever heard of him before he was made Attorney General. Cleveland's whole Cabinet, at the beginning, was rather a bric-a-brac construction of an affair, and he has endeavored to maintain the character in the changes since made necessary by resignation, death and promotion.

To handle an expression, often made use of by Mr. Watterson, to express an elegant and refined idea, Mr.
Olney is a daisy. He thinks his blood a little bluer than the bluest blood which courses through the veins of the bluest blooded. He is very exclusive and altogether unapproachable. Haughty and arrogant in his manner, nature created him a bankrupt in all characteristics which usually attract men to ones self or entitle one to their respect and esteem. As Attorney General he has not shown that distinguishing ability, which sometimes serve as a recompense for deficiencies in other directions, in many public men.

He comes from that section, nevertheless, where lawyers are not only made to measure, but born such, and where law night and day is kept on top, and if he is endowed with the requisite qualifications for a Cabinet position at all, the office he has just vacated to step into the intricate of diplomacy, was the place for him.

The country will await with much interest the development of the foreign policy to be pursued by Mr. Ol-ney, with but little hope for its betterment. He possesses many of the characteristics of the haughtiest English Aristocracy, and seems to be very far removed from any touch with that which is distinctively American.
Judging from the man's own make up and leading traits of character, we feel justified in believing Mr. Cleveland could not have found a man who will carry out his own "un-American ideas in our foreign policy as will Mr.
Olney."

Poor Gresham made us a laughing stock of the world to satisfy his hatred for Harrison. Under other circumstances General Gresham would have acted differently, unfortunately for his fame he was not great enough to rise above personal pique. The littleness which exists in great men as it does in common mortals, often impairs their greatness. What Gen.
Gresham did as a matter of private revenge, Mr. Olney will, I think, do through choice and will thus carry out the wishes of his Chief, with which Gresham would have conflicted but for the reason named.

We are informed by the Press dispatches that Judge Judson Harmon does not expect to sever his connection with the law firm of Harmon, Colston, Goldsmith and Headley, a firm of large corporation lawyers, doubtless supposing his new position
more efficient services to large corporations. We are told however that he is a popular citizen, something that could not be said of Olney, and much admired by Mr. Carlisle, whose home as we all know is in South Cincinnati that beautiful little suburb of the Queen City. Ordinarily
Mr. Carlisle's opinion of the ability of a lawyer, with whom he is well acquainted, would go far towards establishing him a splendid reputation, but of late he changes his opinions to suit circumstances and surroundings, with such facility, that many well meaning people do not look upon him as so much of an oracle as formerly.

Before closing this communication
I thought to add a few words about our State convention but I feel it was too big a thing for me to tackle. The Democrats of Kentucky, never in the fulness of their time, had so large a convention as the Republicans
ticket is a magnificent one and the Republicans can well rejoice over their elections, the platform, and above all the perfect unity and harmony that characterized the convention through out its long sittings.

C. J. imposes upon President Cleveland a responsibility to which the country fears he may not be equal. It is his duty to select an American Secretary of State; not a tool of British diplomatists, not an instrument of Russian or German or French Governments, but an American. The President's faculty of selecting capable men for some other duties is not here

little to show that he can choose a man worthy to have charge of the foreign relations of this Republic.
The President himself, it must be admitted with regret, has not seemed to care for American as opposed to British interests, and his selection of men to represent the nation in its foreign relations has been peculiarly unhappy.

Mr. Gresham had just one qualification for Secretary of State; he was intensely hostile to President Harrison, and willing even to tarnish the record of the United States in order to cast a slur upon the preceding Admin-
bitter personal feeling would affect Mr. Gresham's judgment, and it is the most charitable and kindly explanation of his acts to suppose that in many cases it did. The country does not wish to assume that the acts of the Department have been in all respects such as President Cleveland would have authorized had his trusted Secretary in charge of that department been a man of different temper.

President Cleveland must be aware that the conduct of his Administration in foreign affairs has made him more enemies than anything else.
Even his best friends have found it hard to apologize for the Hawaiian scandal, the Nicaragua weakness, and other failings which have kindled the indignation of American citizens without distinction of party.
If the tariff controversy the President had the hearty approval of a large majority of his political supporters.
In the silver controversy he has made a host of bitter enemies among his political supporters, but has repeatedly called forth the hearty approval of those opposed to his party.
If he were now able so far to reconstruct the policy of his Administration on foreign affairs, before his term of office expires, as to command the hearty approbation of Americans he would be immeasurably stronger in other matters and would go out of office incalculably more regard from his countrymen. For they can make allowance for difference of opinion about political or partisan issues, but they find it exceedingly hard to have patience with an American Administration which does not seem to care anything for American interests or American honor.

There are distinguished Democrats who would give a different tone to the Administration if asked to take
necessary for the President to go beyond the circle of his prominent supporters and close friend to find some who are fully competent for that high trust, and at the same time are thoroughly American in spirit. If
course in the past with much frankness and at times great regret, there is the more reason for giving them an opportunity to show how a high position can be worthily filled. Political opponents do not desire to see the President go beyond the lines of his own party in the selection of a Cabinet officer, as in fact he did in selecting Mr. Gresham, but they do hope that he will have the grace to choose a Democrat who is at the

Republican State Ticket.

The following ticket was named by the Republican State Convention at Louisville last week:
Lieut. Governor—W. J. Worthington.
Auditor—S. H. Stone.
Secretary of State—Chas. Fieley.
Treasurer—Geo. W. Long.
Attorney General—W. S. Taylor.
Superintendent of Public Instruc-
Register of Land Office—C. O.
Reynolds.
Commissioner of Agriculture—Lus-cas Moore.

First District—Jerry Porter.
Second District—H. S. Irwin.
RuRelle.

What do you say?
The time for a decision is at hand.
The future happiness of Hartford de-
man votes for open saloons he is voting in favor of the greatest curse that has ever spread his blackening wings of dependency over any country.
It destroys the happiness of homes;
it transforms the father into a maniac,
the mother into a pauper, the sons into vagabonds and daughters into profligate. Can a man who is in the least inclined to morality, saying nothing of christianity, be in favor of a curse so universal? Will not the christian influence of Hartford stand in solid phalanx against open saloons?

What a hell on earth a woman lives in who has a drunken husband! Oh, death, how lovely thou art to her, and
how soft and warm thy skeleton hand!
The sepulchre at midnight in winter is a Kings drawing room, compared with that woman's home. Can christianity afford to encourage intemper-
opportunity of removing the terrible curse, and a failure upon their part will subject the nation to such perils as visited Phoenicia, Rome, Thebes and Babylon. Let every voter in Hartford go to the polls Monday and declare, in the name of God and the right, that they oppose open saloons.

Bitten Miner from Death.
At Smith's mill, fifty miles northwest of Phenix, arising from his cot the
the Tucson Miner, Harry Carroll stepped squarely upon a rattlesnake and was bitten upon the bare foot.
There were two pints of frontier whisky at the camp, and one of these Carroll immediately dumped into his system. Stowing the other in his pocket, he then mounted a horse and started for the stage station at the canyon of the Hassayampas, a dozen miles away. On the road he drank the remaining flask, and from that time on knew nothing, save that he fell from his horse. Mrs. Conner, the custodian of the station, was alarmed to see the horse coming back, and mounted the animal, and accompanied by her dog, she started on the search. Eight miles away, in the stony hills, fully exposed to the glare of Arizona's July sun, solely through the intelligence of the dog, Carroll was found lying unconscious. He had been there eleven
suffering man on the horse and, bringing him to his mill, nursed him out of danger. The day was hot in the extreme, and the dog, searching for the man, became overheated and on returning to the camp died within a few
given a burial as good as the camp could afford.

An artificial cotton, said to be much cheaper than the natural, is reported from France. It is made from the wood of the pine, spruce or larch, which is debarked and then disintegrated and bleached with a hot solution of bi-sulphide of soda and chloride of lime.
The resulting pure cellulose is treated with chloride of zinc, castor oil and gelatine, and the paste is passed
a thread, which is woven into a presentable fabric.

Dr. A. D. JAMES,
Republican party.

REPRESENTATIVE.

Esq. W. I. ROWE,
Of Centerville, as a candidate to represent

in the next House of Representatives,

GROVER'S latest bid is to fish on Sunday.

next Monday.

SENATOR Brice has decided to be a

THE College flies out at the window as the saloon comes in at the door.
Mark it!

ARE the whims of Hartford superior to the rights of the entire county?
Those who favor open saloons say so much by their votes.

THE citizens of Hartford who favor open saloons arrogate to themselves the right and power to over-

where.

divorce suit.

tory of Kentucky politics. The party stands upon a solid platform, de-
the victory is ours.

issue:

raised by a manifestly unwise effort
'scarce than hen's teeth.'"

HENRY WATSON in Monday's
in which he starts out by saying:

their proceedings was not a success."

And yet a certain county weekly
ceeds to denounce the Courier-Journal
is the peer of any Kentuckian, merely because the childish and chattering
John W. Lewis in the same ungen-
erous manner. As was Lewis' victory
in the Old Fourth so will be Brad-
mud batteries.

WISCONSIN CURE FOR
Cough, Croup, Sore Throat, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Hay Fever, Etc.
Consumption

Senators definition of Democracy.

Dam begins a protracted meeting.

Joshes.

at the very life and welfare of the town.

the observation of Decoration Day,
last Sunday's fishing in Virginia.

boy.

for Vice-President, the country will
divided by Mason and Dixons' Line,
ident and Vice President.

orable words:

the man, who in time of peace, favors
our fighting men. A Protective Tar-

Carlisle made these five points, which
fute:

First—There is not a free coinage
not on a silver basis.

with gold.

silver.

the United States have; and
for his day's work.

follows:

What will they say on the 25th?

was declaring the War a failure.

could never be paid, the Republican party was maintaining the cred-
Democratic party was denouncing the Resumption of Specie payments and declaring in the most solemn
the States of the Union were declar-
party was declaring for sound money.
were ridiculing the idea of manufac-
ploying not less than 15,000 hands,
worth of finished product every year.
To-day no Democrat will contend the
lished and incontrovertible fact.
leading part in American politics.

Republican Convention.
at the court house, Monday, July 22,
publican candidate for Representative
convention called for July 22.

cinct 1894 election, and one for each fraction of such vote over twelve.

to meet at two o'clock p. m.

cinct in which they voted at the Nov.
1894 election.

The following is the vote each precinct will have in the county convention.

A Prayer.

we take the following:

numbers of the American people.
National dishonesty is by many held to be national wisdom, debasement of the coin of the land is believed will insure our country's prosperity.
Dense ignorance, reckless selfishness, overreaching greed, have perverted the judgment of hundreds of thousands in the land. False prophets
the wisdom's experience, the wisdom

ening the American people. National bankruptcy and individual ruin, the misery and degradation of those

no false weights and false measures, no fraud and no breach of faith in the land of Washington and Lincoln.
ests of party nor for the gains of of-
and prosperity."

Mrs. E. J. Hudson moved Wednes-
berry Street.

THE CABINET.

Feels Confident the State Ticket Will Win.

Attended the State Con- vention and met Many Friends From this end of the State.

tude," "communism of pell" and
has endeavored to maintain the character in the changes since made nec-
motion.

made use of by Mr. Watterson, to express an elegant and refined idea, Mr.
ally attract men to ones self or entitle one to their respect and esteem.
As Attorney General he has not shown that distinguished ability, which sometimes serve as a recompense for deficiencies in other directions, in many public men.

vacated to step into the intricate one
characteristics of the haughtiest English Aristocracy, and seems to be
that which is distinctively American.
ideas in our foreign policy as will Mr.

stock of the world to satisfy his hatred for Harrison. Under other cir-
impairs their greatness. What Gen.
Gresham did as a matter of private
but for the reason named.

tion with the law firm of Harmon,
Cincinnati that beautiful little suburb of the Queen City. Ordinarily
Mr. Carlisle's opinion of the ability
acle as formerly.

C. J.

A True American Wanted.
The death of Secretary Gresham

matists, not an instrument of Russian or German or French Governments, but an American. The Pres-
happy.

Mr. Gresham had just one qualification for Secretary of State; he was intensely hostile to President Harrison, and willing even to tarnish the record of the United States in order to cast a slur upon the preceding Admin-
bitter personal feeling would affect
Mr. Gresham's judgment, and it is
ment been a man of different temper.

that the conduct of his Administration in foreign affairs has made him more enemies than anything else. Even his best friends have found it hard to apologize for the Hawaiian scandal, the Nicaragua weakness, and other failings which have kindled the indignation of American citizens without distinction of party. If the tariff controversy the President had the hearty approval of a large majority of his political supporters, but has repeatedly called forth the hearty ap-
struct the policy of his Administra-
American honor.

Tribune.

You've No Idea.

How nicely Hood's Sarsaparilla fits the needs of the people who feel all tired out or run down from any cause. It seems to oil up the whole mechanism of the body so that all moves smoothly and work becomes delight. If you are weak, tired and nervous, Hood's Sarsaparilla is just what you need. Try it.

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, sick headache, indigestion.

We are informed by the Press dis-
tion with the law firm of Harmon,
Cincinnati that beautiful little suburb of the Queen City. Ordinarily
Mr. Carlisle's opinion of the ability
acquainted, would go far towards establishing him a splendid reputa-
acle as formerly.

mony that characterized the conven-

Republican State Ticket.

ton.
Auditor—S. H. Stone.
Secretary of State—Chas. Finley.
Attorney General—W. S. Taylor.
Reynolds.
Commissioner of Agriculture—Lucas Moore.

First District—Jerry Porter.
Second District—H. S. Irwin.
Roelle.

What do you say?

of despondency over any country.
It destroys the happiness of homes;
it transforms the father into a maniac,
in solid phalanx against open saloons?

how soft and warm thy skeleton hand!
with that woma's home. Can chris-
as visited Phoenicia, Rome, Thebes and
right, that they oppose open saloons.
WHITE ROSE.

Bitten Miner from Death.

and was bitten upon the bare foot.
canyon of the Hassayampa, a dozen
his horse. Mrs. Conger, the custodian
animal, and accompanied by her dog,
ing him to the mill, nursed him out of
could afford.

sentable fabric.

IT WAS "CHEAP" DEMOCRATIC THEORY FOUR YEARS AGO.

Democrats, do not be led astray by that cheap Populist theory on the currency question, of the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. The word "free" carries the idea to some minds that it is like a "free barbecue" or "free lunch." Do your own thinking.—[Tale of Two Cities.]

LET A DOLLAR BE A DOLLAR.

A writer on the subject of sound currency pertinently indicates the ultimate good sense of the people in the following words:

"I have no idea that any amount of sophistry now can lead the people away from the safe rule that our primary money, the money of redemption, shall have in itself the value its face proclaims."—[Frankfort Capital.]

President Cleveland denies the story which has gone the rounds of the press that he had sent his check for $500 to the parents of triplets at Crawfordsville, Ind. But the denial was useless. No one believed he would do such a generous act. He has always been opposed to "infant" industries in this country, you know.—[Rockport (Ind.) Journal.]

THEY ARE DESIGNING DEMAGOGUES.

Public speakers, without reference to their politics, who are going over the country denouncing the government, arraying the people against our institutions and trying to bring about discontent are not the men who love their country best. Such men are usually men who hope to ride into power by posing as reformers. They love the people only that they may profit by the discontentment of these same people.

THE ADVANCE IN WAGES.

AND THINK OF IT HERE NEXT MONDAY.

In Atlanta, Ga., on Tuesday, Dr. Manvey shot and instantly killed his wife. He was drunk and she was begging him to come home. Think of this when you are asked to sign the petition for a local option election. Let's get the saloons out of the way so we may never have such an affair in Henrietta.—[Henrietta (Tex) Texas.]

HEAR! HEAR!

The Republicans have put a strong ticket in the field, and they have a good fighting chance. The convention in Louisville last week was the most respectable crowd ever made up by Kentucky Republicans. There was a strong rivalry for the nomination, and a good ticket was selected. The Republican hosts are confident and in good fighting trim.—[Louisville Star.]

ALTYE.

Pirle Killed.

Tuesday's Courier-Journal contained the following account of Geo. Pirle's death. He was a brother to Prof. J. C. Pirle, who was a teacher in Hartford College last year and was a most exemplary young man. Prof. Pirle's many friends here deeply sympathize with him in the loss of his brother.

"George Pirle, a brakeman on one of the trains on the L., St. L. and T. line, while turning one of the brakes lost his balance and fell between two of the cars. The wheels passed over his body.

"Yesterday afternoon he was near this city on his last run. The train was going at a rapid rate and each mile post reminded him that he was nearing the end of his tedious journey, and that he would soon be with his sweetheart.

As the train passed near the Alms-house a wagon was seen on the track in front of the engine. The wagon was loaded with brick, and the horses were slow pulling it over the track. The engineer saw this, and he began to slacken the speed of the engine.

The signal to apply the brakes was given to the man on top of the cars. Pirle, with the rest of the force, sprang to the brakes to do their duty.

He succeeded in turning one of the brakes, but as he was trying to turn another he lost his balance and fell between two of the cars. When he slipped he tried to hold on, but as the car had been newly painted it was unusually slippery, and he could not stop himself."

Judge and Mrs. John P. Morton attended church at Prentiss last Sunday.

Dr. G. Goldstein, the well known and skillful optic specialist, of Louisville, is at the Hartford House and will remain only a few days. If your eyes need proper adjusted spectacles, here is the golden opportunity to consult an eminent specialist in that line. Dr. Goldstein's system of test results in a perfect fit, compensating for nature's deficiency, while preserving the adjusting power of "accommodations" of the normal eye the large requirement has been nearly or entirely overlooked by most opticians of the day. Dr. Goldstein's experience of seventeen years enables him, by the most improved method and with the latest scientific apparatus, to correctly test the sight, and by a suitable selection of lenses or spectacles to give relief and strengthen the eyes for the varied requirement in professional and private life. Those suffering from neuralgia of the eye and head will do well to call on him, as he gives immediate relief. Consultation and examination free.

WM. F. RAPIERE.

The proprietor of the ELLENDALE FAIR & STOCK FARM, near Cordsville, Ky., is among the best known men in Western Kentucky. His training and breeding stables first brought him into notice several years ago and the grand success of his 1894 fair made him known over the State. The magnitude of his plans for the 1895 fair is making his name familiar as a household word all over the Green River Country. The grandeur of his new Fair buildings and the beauty of his large and up to date program, makes assurance doubly sure that his claim that his Fair is THE Fair of the Green River country, is simply the truth. Since last Fair he has planted out hundreds of forest shade trees, made beautiful carriage drives, which with the artistically designed flower beds, make the grounds the realization of a poet's dream. He has also made a new Race Track; half-mile regulation, 60 feet in width. The large 3-story Hotel is nearing completion; the 2-story Floral Hall is well under way, as is also the 300 feet addition to the grand stand. All the buildings are large, substantial, and convenient.

The enterprise is one of such magnitude that but very few men could project or plan it, and fewer could carry out the details to a successful finish. Mr. Rapiere's clear judgment, indomitable energy and perseverance, backed by his upright business principles, make him a successful as well as a remarkable man.

The ladies of Ohio county ought to be getting their handy work ready to exhibit at the Floral Hall. The inducements offered are greater than at ordinary Fairs. Besides the premium given to the best specimen of work of its class, there will be given a $110 Pack and Organ for best display in the hall and a premium of $25 in gold to the best display from each county represented by at least four displays. Anyone desiring any information regarding premiums, or wanting programs, the Secretary, Robert T. Smith, Sorgho, Ky., will cheerfully and freely furnish the same on application or you can call at Z. Yesterday was the anniversary of the "martyrdom" of Elijah P. Lovejoy, who was lynched by a mob at Alton, Ill., in 1837, because of his abolition principles. He was of Puritan extraction and a natural born meddler. "Going out to Missouri, he found the 'Institution' of slavery—which, by the way, was instituted in this country by the people of New England, and which would be an institution now if slavery had proven as profitable in Massachusetts as it was in Mississippi—he found the institution and so he began to meddle with it. He was run out of the State and he landed at Alton, where he established an abolition newspaper. At that time there were slaves in Illinois and Illinois was as strongly pro slavery as Georgia. Lovejoy soon provoked antagonisms, for he was an inveterate agitator, and the result was that Lovejoy was assassinated. That made him a martyr to all intents and purposes. His blood made a thousand other Lovejoys—men who would never have thought about slavery if Lovejoy had not been the victim of that mob's passion. It attuned the eloquence of his brother, Owen Lovejoy, the ablest and most brilliant of all Lincoln's lieutenants and the Wendell Phillips of the West. It made Illinois an anti-slavery State. WHAT THEY SAY.

Democrats, do not be led astray by that cheap Populist theory on the currency question, of the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. The word "free" carries the idea to some minds that it is like a "free barbecue" or "free lunch." Do your own thinking. [Tale of Two Cities.]

A writer on the subject of sound currency pertinently indicates the ultimate good sense of the people in the following words:

"I have no idea that any amount of sophistry now can lead the people away from the safe rule that our primary money, the money of redemption, shall have in itself the value its face proclaims." [Frankfort Capital.

RISE IN WAGES.

In Atlanta, Ga., on Tuesday, Dr. Manvey shot and instantly killed his wife. He was drunk and she was begging him to come home. Think of this when you are asked to sign the petition for a local option election. Let's get the saloons out of the way so we may never have such an affair in Henrietta. [Henrietta (Tex) Texas.]

The Republicans have put a strong ticket in the field, and they have a good fighting chance. The convention in Louisville last week was the most respectable crowd ever made up by Kentucky Republicans. There was a strong rivalry for the nomination, and a good ticket was selected. The Republican hosts are confident and in good fighting trim. [Louisville Star.]

Pirtle Killed.

Tuesday's Courier-Journal contained the following account of Geo. Pirtle's death. He was a brother to Prof. J. C. Pirtle, who was a teacher in Hartford College last year and was a most exemplary young man. Prof. Pirtle's many friends here deeply sympathize with him in the loss of his brother:

"George Pirtle, a brakeman on one of the trains on the L., St. L. and T. line, while turning one of the brakes lost his balance and fell between two of the cars. The wheels passed over his body.

"Yesterday afternoon he was nearing this city on his last run. The train was going at a rapid rate and each mile post reminded him that he was nearing the end of his tedious journey, and that he would soon be with his sweetheart.

As the train passed near the Alms-house a wagon was seen on the track in front of the engine. The wagon was loaded with brick, and the horses were slow pulling it over the track. The engineer saw this, and he began to slacken the speed of the engine.

The signal to apply the brakes was given to the men on top of the cars. Pirtle, with the rest of the force, sprang to the brakes to do their duty.

He succeeded in turning one of the brakes, but as he was trying to turn another he lost his balance and fell between two of the cars. When he slipped he tried to hold on, but as the car had been newly painted it was unusually slippery, and he could not stop himself."

Judge and Mrs. John P. Morton attended church at Prentiss last Sunday.

Dr. G. Goldstein, the well known and skillful optic specialist, of Louisville, is at the Hartford House and will remain only a few days. If your eyes need proper adjusted spectacles, here is the golden opportunity to consult an eminent specialist in that line. Dr. Goldstein's system of test results in a perfect fit, compensating for nature's deficiency, while reserving the adjusting power of "accommodations" of the normal eye the large requirement has been nearly or entirely overlooked by most opticians of the day. Dr. Goldstein's experience of seventeen years enables him, by the most improved method and with the latest scientific apparatus, to correctly test the sight, and by a suitable selection of lenses or spectacles to give relief and strengthen the eyes for the varied requirement in professional and private life. Those suffering from neuralgia of the eye and head will do well to call on him, as he gives immediate relief. Consultation and examination free.

WOMEN WHO SUFFER.

With any Form of Female Complaint Should Read What Dr. Hartman Says.

It would be impossible to present an exhaustive array of the symptoms caused by these troubles, for their name is legion; but prominent among them are to be mentioned smarting, throbbing, scalding, burning, burning, quivering, aching, trembling, bloating, flashes of heat, tremors of cold, prickly sensations, sinking feelings, faintness, numbness, indescribable puncturing, piercing pains flying from part to part with provoking uncertainty, mocking the victim with momentary relief, to begin its tortures elsewhere. No two cases are exactly alike in number or severity of symptoms, some being only slightly annoyed, others being actually confined to the bed.

In all of these perverted functions of the female organs take tabescent of Pe-ru-na before each meal and between meals, and enough Man-a-lin at bedtime to keep the bowels continually in a natural condition. Vigorous injections of hot water should be taken three times a day.

Book on female diseases sent free by The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company, of Columbus, Ohio.

A Low Cur.

A special to the Evening Post from Washington says:

In addition to the scurrilous letters written by Fourth Auditor Morton about Cleveland and Carlisle, for which the President summarily removed him yesterday, it is said today that he was responsible for the story in the campaign of 1884, about Blaine's first child having been born out of wedlock. It was he, so it is said, who went to Kentucky and chided the date of the tombstone of the child. Blaine's only request of Cleveland in his first administration, was that he would not appoint Morton to any position, but in some way Morton secured Cleveland's confidence, and it was only yesterday the President became convinced, from actual proof, that he was harboring a traitor and a rascal.

The question is often asked, what is the reason that of all the fashion magazines published in America no other enjoys such a wide popularity as Toilettes? There must be some intrinsic merit about this book, which renders it more fascinating to the average female mind than any other of its class. And aside from its attractive cover page, which immediately challenges our admiration, we are struck with the astonishing variety of its inner pages, which are fairly flowing over with new styles in every conceivable garment intended for ladies' and children's wear. There is nothing stale or infatigable. Every design has a peculiar finish of its own which marks it instantly as the coming thing. What we see pictured in Toilettes to-day will be noticed at all fashionable resorts in the city or country a month hence. In this number we notice especially a number of bathing costumes of the latest costumes of the latest invention. Riding habits, tennis and croquet dresses by well known Parisian designers. Twenty cents, at all news stands.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Devilish County News.

A twelve-year-old son of Mr. J. A. McAllister fell from a tree near the water mill this morning, and was perhaps fatally injured. He had climbed into a sycamore tree, about 20 feet from the ground. He lost his balance and fell that distance. The lad was unconscious for some time and gave every evidence of internal injury. Dr. Hoover was called and restored the boy to consciousness. Dr. Hoover said he could not tell whether the injuries would prove fatal or not.

There seems to be a change of sentiment among some of the ministers in regard to the whisky trade of Owensboro. In a conversation on the subject of whisky traffic which occurred among several prominent gentlemen on the street a few days ago, Rev. Fred D. Hale, who has heretofore been regarded as the champion of temperance and the strongest opponent of intoxicating liquors, is reported to have said: "Liquors cannot be voted out of the city of Owensboro on account of the peculiar environments of the place."

The pupils of Miss Kate Anderson gave a recital last evening at the residence of Mr. Anderson on Fourth st. The pupils gave a delightful recital and the performance reflected great credit upon Miss Anderson. Miss Anderson in response to a hearty call from the audience rendered two selections which were enthusiastically received. After the recital refreshments were served and the entertainment assumed the nature of a reception—[Owensboro Inquirer.]

A Prosperous Farmer.

When you see a barn larger than his house it shows that he will have large profits and small afflictions. When you see him driving his work it shows that he will never be driven from good resolutions, and that he will certainly work his way to prosperity. When you see in his wood-house a sufficiency for three months or more, it shows that he will be more than a ninety days wonder in farming operations, and he is not sleeping in his house after a drunken frolic. When his sled is housed in the summer, and his farming implements are housed both in winter and summer, it plainly shows that he will have a good house over his head in the summer of his early life and the winter of his old age. When his cattle are properly shielded in winter, it evinces that he is acting according to Scripture, which says that "a merciful man is merciful to his beast." When he is seen subscribing for a paper and paying in advance, it shows that he is speaking like a book respecting the last improvements in agriculture, and that he never gets his walking papers to the land of poverty.

A disgusted philosopher says: "There are women with noses like ant-eaters, voices like cat-fights, faces which are rank poison to the naked eye, feet like pancakes, chests like ironing boards and necks as long and stringy as poor land potatoes, who go about the country lecturing on dress reform, and wearing clothes that would make a freight train quit the road."

WANTED:—A true friend, who will recognize me when I am compelled to wear patched pants; who will take my hand as I am sliding down hill, instead of giving me a kick to hasten my descent; who will lend me a dollar without two dollars security; who will pull off his coat and fight for me when the odds are two to one; who will talk of me behind my back as he talks to my face. Such a friend is wanted by 10,000 beings throughout the whole world.

Do you Want to Stop Tobacco.

You can be cured while using it. The habit of using tobacco grows on a man until grave diseases conditions are produced. Tobacco causes cancer of the mouth and stomach, dyspepsia, loss of memory, nervous affections, congestion of the retina, and wasting of the optic nerve, resulting in impairment of vision, even to the extent of blindness; dizziness, or vertigo; tobacco asthma, nightly suffocation, dull pain in region of the heart, followed later by sharp pains, palpitation and weakened pulse, resulting in fatal heart disease. It also cures loss of vitality.

QUIT BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE. To quit suddenly is too severe a shock to the system, as tobacco—an inveterate user becomes a stimulant which his system continually craves. "Baco-curo" is a scientific and reliable vegetable remedy, guaranteed to be harmless, and which has been in use for the last 23 years, having cured thousands of habitual tobacco users—smokers, chewers and snuff-dippers.

You can use all the tobacco you want while taking "Baco-curo." It will notify you when to stop. We give a written guarantee to permanently cure any case with three boxes, or refund the money with 10 per cent. interest.

"Baco-curo" is not a substitute, but a reliable and scientific cure—which absolutely destroys the craving for tobacco without the aid of will power and with no inconvenience. It leaves the system as pure and free from nicotine, as the day when you took your first chew or smoke.

Sold by all druggists, at $1 per box, three boxes, (thirty days treatment and guaranteed cure) $2.50, or sent direct upon receipt of price. Send 6 two cent stamps for sample box. Eureka Chemical & Manufacturing Company, Manufacturing Chemist, La Wisconsin. 46 1st

SEVEN LANGUAGES

Heard by one Ear—What One Must Expect in an Elevated Smoking Car.

Passengers in a South Side elevated smoking car were treated to what might be termed a modern Babel the other evening. The train was north-bound, and it was just after the hour when the horny-handed cease their labors for the day and seek the most rapid means of transit to carry them to their homes. There were exactly thirty-three men in the car, and from the Cottage Grove avenue station down to Congress street the confusion of tongues would drive one who tried to make all that was said to desperation.

"I can hear seven languages spoken at once here," said a man who had prefaced this remark with a request for a light. He had just finished rolling with his calloused fingers a well-rounded cigarette, whose smell indicated a grade of tobacco in its interior much better than one would have suspected from the dirt-stained clothing that he wore.

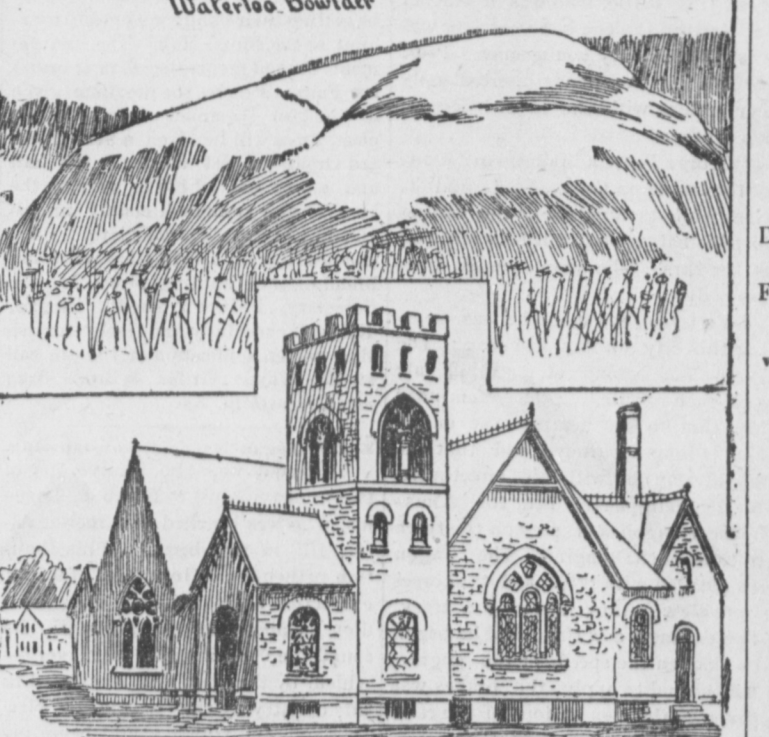

"I used to follow the mast," he said, "and while I make no pretensions whatever to being linguist, nevertheless I learned enough of the languages of the different countries I visited to be able to distinguish them when I hear them. There," he said, pointing to two men just across the aisle who were intently examining a pair of suspenders they had taken from a peddler's pack, "are two men who are taking a mixture of Greek and Arabic, but enough of the latter to convince me that they are Arabs. The pure Greek of natives of Greece is the language in which yonder four men are conversing," he continued, pointing to four men who occupied two seats vis-a-vis near by.

"Now look up towards the rear door," and he pointed towards the end of the car, "and the eight men engaged in that noisy rapid conversation are all Italians. Just this side of them are four others whose talk I need not tell you is carried on in the German tongue. Look towards the other end of the car and there are two other groups. The one composed of three persons is made up of Swedes and the one of five men, whose talk is of the jolly, rollicking kind, out of which they are at times extracting an apparent fund of pleasure, judging from the outbursts of laughter, is made up of Frenchmen. There you have six languages, and when you add to that the English you and I are speaking, we make rather a polyglot carload of people."

To make this, heterogeneous gathering of men more complete a colored individual had a seat all to himself and paid no attention whatever to the multiplicity of tongues that were clapping with vigor around him. "It was only an instance showing the many different kinds of people that go to make up the population of this bustling, Western metropolis—a Chicago symposium if you will."—[Tribune.]

CONSTRUCTED OF STONE FROM ONE BOWLDER.

The Presbyterian Church of Waterloo, Ia., can well claim to be one of the unique buildings in the world, so far as the material of its construction goes, for it is built substantially of stone taken from one huge boulder. The stone from which the church is constructed weighed more than five millions of pounds. When in 1860 the Rev. C. H. Putnam and the members of the Waterloo Presbyterian Church decided to erect a new place of worship and began to look for stone in a section where stone is scarce, their attention was called to what was apparently a very large boulder situated two miles from Waterloo, a part of which projected eight feet from the ground. Work of excavating the great stone was begun. When exposed, as the boulder stood, it was found to be twenty-eight feet high, thirty feet wide, and twenty feet thick. On this month the workmen began their labors with drill, powder and sledge, and soon this Napoleon of boulders was transformed into the pretty town, and in a short time a wonderful metamorphosis was apparent, when the giant boulder, after resting undisturbed and nearly buried by the deposits of ages, was transformed into a beautiful temple of a religion.

England's Submarine Cable System.

The war in Corea has just brought out prominently the control which England has over the submarine cable system of the world. English companies own lines having a length of more than 150,000 miles, which cost over $20,000,000 and produce a revenue of more than $4,000,000. The government has done everything in its power to facilitate the laying of these cables by subvention and patronage, and the preliminary surveys have been nearly all made by the naval authorities. In return the companies are obliged to give priority to the dispatches of the imperial and colonial governments over all others, to employ no foreigners and to allow no wire to be under the control of foreign governments, and in case of war to replace their servants by government officials when required.

DON'T STOP TOBACCO

IT'S INJURIOUS TO STOP SUDDENLY and don't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so; as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the sudden stoppage of tobacco you must have some stimulant, and in most all cases, the effect of the stimulant, be it opium, morphine, or other opiates, leaves a far worse habit contracted. Ask your druggist about BACO-CURO. It is purely vegetable. You do not have to stop using tobacco with BACO-CURO. It will notify you when to stop and your desire for tobacco will cease. Your system will be as free from nicotine as the day before you took your first chew or smoke. An iron-clad written guarantee to absolutely cure the tobacco habit in all its forms, or money refunded. Price $1.00 per box or 3 boxes (30 days treatment and guaranteed cure), for $2.50. For sale by all druggists or will be sent by mail upon receipt of price. SEND SIX TWO CENT STAMPS FOR SAMPLE BOX. Booklets and proofs free.

Office of THE PIONEER PRESS COMPANY, C. W. HORNICK, Supt. St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 7, 1894.

Eureka Chemical and Mfg Co., La Cross, Wis.

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physicians told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being, at least. I tried the so-called "Keeley Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely cured; I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which ever inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it. Yours very truly, C. W. HORNICK.
